

Cowherd Boy and Weaver Girl (Enchanted Tales of China - Orange Level)

A celestial fairy descends to Earth against heavenly orders to marry a human man she loves—a cowherd. They have a happy life together, with two beautiful children, but soon the fairy is forced to return to Heaven. When the cowherd tries to catch up with his wife, the Queen Mother of Heaven separates them forever with the Milky Way. Can the family ever get back together? This story belongs to the Golden Chinese myths, legends, fairytales and folktales that have captured hearts and imaginations for over a thousand years. The story is retold in English for general readers interested in Asian Culture and literature, catered specifically to a multi-cultural audience. Chinese text in the bottom of pages will be a great supplement for readers who can read Chinese or wish to learn more of the language. As the Chinese culture Readers series is loosely leveled for different age groups based on their abilities to understand the culture and history, this story targets mostly preteen to teenage readers. Additionally, detailed notes on Chinese culture in the back will help enhance readers understanding of the stories as well as of their historical and social backgrounds, while full color illustrations highlight some important scenes.
