

Migration Trauma, Culture, and Finding the Psychological Home Within: Views From British Object Relations Theory

Migration Trauma, Culture, and Finding the Psychological Home Within is an in-depth study of Eastern European migration to the United States. In presenting the clinical case studies of Eastern European migrants seeking long term psychoanalytic treatment, Grace Conroy pays particular attention to pre-migration history, inner culture, and early psychological development. Conroy details what is happening in the psyche of migrants who are in the process of integrating into new cultures ultimately exploring the details and nuances of psychological struggles and transformations of the migratory process.
